Simeon LeRoy was the earliest pioneer (in Cote du Midi and the Bay) of whom we have received any record; he located here as early as 1785.

At the opening of the American Revolution, he, with two or three brothers, lived in Genesee County, N. Y.; but their loyalty to the British Government forbidding their casting in their lot with those who had thrown off their allegiance, they felt that safety demanded a removal. Simeon went first to Nova Scotia, and after spending a few years there, and in other places, he came to St. Andrews and settled on the River Rouge, on land now owned by John McGregor and Stephen Burwash.

At the time the LeRois left Genesee County, haste prevented their making any effort to sell their property, hence they left all, glad to escape only with their lives. The country then being new, and land worth but little, they probably did not regard the sacrifice they were making as a great one. Since then, however, the same land--owing to the rapid growth of villages and cities--has become very valuable, and, not many years ago, an effort was made to find the heirs to the real estate vacanted by the LeRois. An agent visited this section of Canada, and endeavored to induce descendants of the LeRoy brothers to look up their claims to the property; but believing they had no right to the improvements which had been made thereon, and regarding it of little value when their ancestors abandoned it, they, conscientiously, decided to have nothing to do with the matter.

Mr. Simeon LeRoy lived on the land where he first settled on the River Rouge till his death; he had three sons--William, Simeon, Henry, and two daughters--Sophia and Hannah.

The homestead was divided between William and Simeon; Henry bought the lot now owned by John McMartin. He sold out not many years subsequently, and moved to East Hawkesbury, where he spent the remainder of his days. William was the only one who remained in this section. He married a daughter of Martin Jones, an early pioneer at St. Andrew's Bay, and spent his life on the homestead. They had ten children--five sons and five daughters; six of these--three sons and three daughters--settled in East Hawkesbury, Ont., one son and two daughters in Montreal, and another son, Martin, bought a farm on the River Rouge. He was married to Mary, daughter of Malcolm ~~McMurray~~ McCallum, a worthy pioneer of this locality. They had twelve children--eight sons and four daughters.

Mr. LeRoy died 1st January, 1893; Mrs. LeRoy, 1st November, 1889. Of the children, six settled in the State of Michigan; one daughter in Manchester, N. H.; Malcolm, the eldest, in Calumet Island; Archibald C., and Mary, who married Martin LeRoy, in Hawkesbury, Ont.

Alexander is the only one who has remained in the neighborhood of his birth. He is one of the highly respected citizens of the parish, whose counsel is sought in matters of moment to the municipality; and he has served it in the capacity of Justice of the Peace for a decade, and as School Commissioner about the same time. He married Hannah, a daughter of Henry Albright, in 1871. They have three children living, and Osman Edgar, their eldest, is a graduate of McGill and has obtained an Academy Diploma. Mr. LeRoy has lately purchased the Harrington Estate.

Alteration of the Foreign Name: Dutch, English, French.

The Frenchman Leonard LeRoy, baptized 1674 at Quebec as a Catholic, was married in the Dutch Reformed Church at Kingston, N.Y., in 1703, as Jonas Larroy. He lived near Poughkeepsie, Albany, and Schoharie, N.Y.; most New York records give his name as Jonar Larway or Jonas Laraway. Seemingly the French pronunciation of the first name was corrupted by the Dutch, and the second name by the English! It was perpetuated as the Laraway Family.

SIMEON LE ROY, ancestor of the Roy-Audy family of French Canada and LeRoy and Laraway in United States and Ontario, was born about 1640 at Creances, a village about 12 miles northwest of Coutances, Manche, Normandy, son of Richard Le Roy and Gilette Jacquet, of Creances. He settled in the fief or seigneurie of St. Joseph, Charlesbourg, near Quebec, in 1668, removed to Montreal in 1679, to Albany, New York, in 1681 or 1682, and in or before 1689 to Kingston, New York, where he lived until his death in 1711. He bore the nickname Ody (Audy, Audi) and was known in Quebec as Simeon Le Roy dit Ody. He was a master carpenter or contractor, and was Roman Catholic in religion, although he may be considered as a Huguenot, as all his children became Protestants in their new home. He was unmarried in 1668, and was then 28 years of age. He married, 3 Sept., 1668, Claude DESCHALETS, one of three orphaned sisters among those "filles du roi" who were sent to Canada at public expense to find husbands and populate the country. Only one bann was published, perhaps to save expense. She was the daughter of Francois d'Eschalets and Jacqueline Chevallereau, of the parish of Notre Dame de Fontenay le Comte, Bishopric of Mitzais (Maillezais). One month later he took up lands in the fief of St. Joseph, or l'Espinay, at Charlesbourg, on the St. Charles River, near Quebec, belonging to the Hebert-Couillard de l'Espinay family. He remained there until 1679. He was in Montreal in July, 1679, where he bought land. In the census of 1681 he had eight children and was living in Montreal. His daughter, Marie, was buried at Montreal on 21 May, 1681. On 28 Nov., 1682, he apprenticed his son, Augustin, to Adam Winne for a term of six consecutive years to learn the trade of rope making. This was in Albany, New York, and Augustin was then about 11 years of age. The Le Roy family removed to Albany between May, 1681, and November, 1682. They resided in Kingston, New York, from 1686 or 1687. His wife died about February, 1708, at Kingston.

Children:

1. Olivier, born in Quebec, Canada, 25 May, and baptized 30 May, 1669. He was living in Ulster County, New York, in 1689.
2. Jean, born 4th and baptized 7th Sept., 1670, at Quebec. He remained in Canada and married Therese Jobin at Charlesbourg 6 Feb., 1691. His family is called Roy-Ody.
3. Augustin, born and baptized 18 Dec., 1671. There is no further record after his apprenticeship, in 1682, to Adam Winne.
4. Marie Anne, born 7th and baptized 11th May, 1673. She married at New Paltz New York, on 7 June, 1790, Hugo Freer, Jr., son of Hugo and Marie (Haye) Freer. See Freer Family.
- + 5. Leonard Treny (Jonar or Jonas), born at St. Joseph, Quebec, 15 and baptized 18 Sept., 1674. He married 28 Sept., 1703, at Kingston, New York, Maria Ceycke Uzille, daughter of David and Marie (Casier) Uzille. He removed from Kingston to Poughkeepsie and thence to the vicinity of Albany about 1714, and finally to Schoharie between 1725 and 1729. He died some time after 1750, and his wife survived a few years.
6. Pierre, born at St. Joseph, Charlesbourg, Canada, 20th and baptized 26th April, 1676. No further record.
7. Charlotte Gertrude, born and baptized at St. Joseph 22 Feb., 1678. No further record.
8. Jeanne-Elizabeth, born at St. Joseph 28th and baptized at Quebec 29th March, 1679. She married Denis Relyea of Esopus. See Relyea Family.
9. Marie, born and baptized 2 May, 1681; died 28 May, 1681.
10. Francois (Captain Frans), born probably at Albany or Kingston about Handwritten text in Arabic script, likely a manuscript or letter. The text is written in a cursive style and covers most of the page. It appears to be a formal document, possibly a contract or a legal record, given the structured nature of the lines and the use of certain phrases. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of age and wear.

To the Honourable Peter Russell Administrator of the Government of the Province of Upper Canada In Council

The Memorial of Hannah Lurraway widow of Isaac Lurraway <sup>deceased</sup> late a Soldier in the Kings Royal Reg<sup>t</sup> of New York

Humbly Sheweth

That your Memorialist's Husband and four of his Sons have served his Majesty in the Reg<sup>t</sup> afore said during the late American war, and at the Reduction in 1783 Retired to Lands allotted them<sup>y</sup> Government, in the Township of Fredericksburgh in the Midland District

That your Memorialist's Husband dying in year 1791 and her Children having now families to provide for and herself by reason of her advanced age unable to gain a living, and being well satisfied of the good disposition of Government to all those who have rendered themselves deserving by their attachment to Britain, hopes your Honour will take her case into Consideration

Your Memorialist therefore Prays your Honour will have the goodness to Grant her an emolument of any Quantity of Land your Honour may be Pleased to think proper in the Home District

And your Memorialist as in Duty bound
Will ever Obey

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or a page from a manuscript. The text is written in dark ink on a light-colored paper. The handwriting is somewhat faded and difficult to read, but it appears to be a continuous flow of text. There are several lines of text, with some words being more legible than others. The overall appearance is that of an old, handwritten document.
